

July 28, 1942.

Mr. James Semler,
2374 Seventh Ave.,
New York City.

Dear Semler:

I was thinking it would be a good idea if we each had someone at the Stadium Sunday to receive a call, you, from the Bushwick's park, and me, from Ruppert Stadium, made by someone who could tell us how much money we received from the day. This would enable us to get the money situation straightened out right away in New York that day. The last time we pooled our money, Gottlieb just sent us checks for what he said was due us. If you prefer we can still let it go that way, but I wouldn't mind getting what is coming to me right then and there. If you think this would be a good idea, let me know so I can make some arrangements. You should get a telephone number at Yankee Stadium where the call could come directly to you at a certain time, if you get such a number, let me know what it is so I can look for a call also.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ

P. S. Are we going to arrange to take the turnstiles also?